Climate & geography
for riding

BECAUSE OF THE SUN

The country's moderate Atlantic climate makes it great for riding in every season. A moderate Autumn and Winter is topped by a sunny spring and summer. This makes it a great option as a cycling destination, either to start off your season or just riding throughout the summer.

BECAUSE OF THE LANDSCAPE DIVERSITY

Portugal is home to amazing beaches, glacial valleys, big mountain ranges, wine countries and national parks alike in a condensed. It's very easy to mix different emotions in one single ride, from cruising the coastline to descending amazing trails.

BECAUSE OF THE ABUNDANCE OF CAR-FREE ROADS AND AMAZING TRAILS

Portugal has backroads with great conditions that create a great atmosphere for a peaceful group ride. Many regions have invested in the creation of bike parks, to maintain and improve trails, which makes it perfect for mountain biking.

A COUNTRY OF NAVIGATORS AND EXPLORERS

A country in the epicenter of trade routes, that once led the strongest naval fleet the world had ever seen, spanning over 600 years. A country of explorers and one of the first to adventure into the sea and discover cultures in Africa, Asia, India and the Americas, which is still today visible in it's language, the third most spoken in the world.

A 1000 YEAR OLD MELTING POT OF CULTURES

The “Portucale” county was formed in 1139 by D. Afonso Henriques, in an epic family battle. But even before it's foundation, “Lusitania” was inhabited by Romans since 45 BC, the Visigods, the Moors and many other. Today's Portugal is a sovereign nation-state which prides itself of being a part of Europe and having a rich and strong history and identity.

MONUMENTS AND MUSEUMS MEET CONTEMPORARY & MODERN ARTS

As a petite country opened to the world, Portugal has always embraced other cultures and ways of art. Nowadays, you will find that modern and contemporary architecture, literature, music, and theatre blends with millennial traditions and craftsmanship

FROM MEDITERANNEAN CUISINE TO THE INTERIOR CHEESES AND “ENCHIDOS”

Being bathed by the Atlantic ocean means Portugal thrives on fantastic, fresh fish and seafood, expertly used in it's trademark mediterranean cuisine. But the country's great variety of cultures and landscapes means each region has an endless variety of cheese, wines and local gastronomy.

BEST WINE COUNTRIES IN THE WORLD

Douro and Alentejo have been voted best wine countries in the world, not just because they are home to some of the best wine tasting experiences, but also because of their pitoresque and authentic landscapes, people, wineries, farms and culture.

FLAVOUR AND RICHNESS IN EVERY BITE

Everywhere you go, you'll find it easy to savour great, authentic and simple food. From Michelin star restaurants to local “tascas”, Portugal is a foodie's heaven.

CHARM HOTELS AND DESTINATIONS

Tourism is one of Portugal's main activities. Visiting the country, you'll find great infrastructures to support your stay: from amazing 5 star hotels to charming palaces and farms that have been restored with great care to host tourists from all around the world. Home to several UNESCO world heritage sites, we proudly take care of our touristic attraction and destinations.

AUTHENTICITY OF THE COUNTRY

Although a modern country, Portugal keeps its traditions and costumes very much alive. With its borders established since 1139, the country's culture materializes in its trademark music, literature, art, craftsmanship and goods, but they are also passed on from generation to generation and are truly embed in daily routines that make up the portuguese way of living.

WELCOMING NATURE OF THE PORTUGUESE

The portuguese people are welcoming by nature. We love to host dinners and receive guests and tourists – there's always room for one more at our table.
